

Prepositions

Compiled by: Chrisie

I have taught it with drawing a bee next to a person's face. You ask the kids, tell me all of the places this bee and go in relation to the man, directions. They will say through the nose, in the ear, above the head...the list goes on and on... that's a simple way and very visual too...